Contributions beyond our Archdiocesan goal help us to:

Repair and Paint Church Exterior

$11,000

Why? After 12 years of tough Alaska weather it is past time to repaint the exterior of our church building! Although it has been lovingly cared for over the years, due to considerable weathering the building will need extensive preparation, to include replacing some of the siding prior to painting. We are keeping the cost low on this project by using parishioner donated paint. Thank you!

Operable Windows in Social Hall

$5,000

Why? With the ceiling now replaced in the ongoing phased renovation of our social hall, we now turn to the next step: replacing the outside two windows on the north and south walls with windows that we can open for better ventilation. It's nice to gather as family; however, sometimes the room can get stifling hot. We will use donated labor for the installation. Thank you!

Paint the Interior of the gym

$7,000

Why? Our new gym floor looks awesome! We now turn to the final part of our gym renovation: painting the interior walls. Portions of the gym have not been painted since 2003. The new interior will feature a "ring of virtues," fostering a spiritual sense in the space as we use it for Super Sunday, youth ministry events, and our school's athletic program. Thank you!
